DETAILED ACTION

Status

This communication is in response to the amendment filed on September 11, 2009.

Claims 66-78, 84-85, and 87-89 are allowed in this Office action (renumbered as claims 1-18).

Reasons for Allowance

The following is an Examiner's statement of reasons for allowance for independent claims 66-78, 84-85, and 87-89:

A) The prior arts of record fail to teach the updating steps of
"perform an update on the stored rental information so as to show that the content is not the rental content when (a) the received new content identifier and the stored content identifier identify a same content, and (b) the stored rental information shows that the content is the rental content, and the received new rental information shows that the new content is not the rental content, perform no update on the stored rental information regardless of whether or not the received new rental information shows that the new content is the rental content when (a) the received new content identifier and the stored content identifier identify the same content, and (b) the stored rental information shows that the content is not the rental content" (independent claims 66-67, and 84-85), and the transmitting step of:

“transmitting the acquired content identifier and the acquired rental information to the management device when (a) the received new content identifier and the stored content identifier identify a same content, and (b) the stored rental information shows that the content is the rental content, and the received new rental information shows that the new content is not the rental content, suppress transmitting the acquired content identifier and the acquired rental information to the management device when (a) the received new content identifier and the stored content identifier identify the same content, and (b) the stored rental information shows that the content is not the rental content” (independent claims 87-89).

Claims 68-78 are also allowable based on their dependencies on claim 67.

B) The prior arts on record are summarized as follow:

i) Arisaka et al. (Pub. No. US 2002/0165987) teaches a digital content playback method in a digital content playback system including a terminal allowing a user to play back digital content even when the user is at a different location or a different playback terminal.

ii) Yuasa et al. (Pub. No. US 2002/0138379) teaches managing lease of information contents distributed from an information lease service provider to a user, wherein a contract concerning lease of information contents is made in advance between the information lease service provider and the user, utilization condition information is added to information contents to be distributed to the user based on the contract.

iii) Milton (Pub. No. US 2002/0059120) teaches providing a virtual inventory of goods, e.g., media contents, where the goods can be purchased or conveyed, registered, transferred and loaned, while stored and controlled remotely (not on consumer devices), and accessed locally, on demand, from a plurality of web enabled devices and web enabled locations via a distributed network.

Any comments considered necessary by the Applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
